

The Career Wardrobe
2nd Annual Fashioning Futures for Women Award

To celebrate The Career Wardrobe's 16th Anniversary, we presented the inaugural Fashioning Futures for Women Award to Chrissey Ladd in June 2011. This year's award will be presented at the A Perfect Fit fundraising event on June 7, 2012 at the Park Hyatt at the Bellevue.

Criteria:

The Fashioning Futures for Women Award will honor individuals or organizations who demonstrate a commitment to the key points of The Career Wardrobe's mission: empower women, inspire confidence and assist women in pursuing self-sufficiency and successful careers. Additional criteria include:

- Live and/or work in the Philadelphia region. Organizations should be headquartered or have a significant presence in the region.
- Show professional success as defined by financial results, career growth or achievement
- Significant community involvement through volunteer work, leadership or influence
- Demonstrated support of assisting women to achieve success
- Willingness and ability to assist The Career Wardrobe by promoting A Perfect Fit to their social and business networks to raise money and awareness for the organization

The following groups will be ineligible for award consideration: Career Wardrobe current or former board members or employees, current government/elected officials and media/news personalities.

Timeline:

- Nominations accepted through February 2012
- Award decisions will be made by a committee of Career Wardrobe leadership
- Award recipients will be announced in March 2012

Nomination Process:

- Nomination form should be submitted via email (award@careerwardrobe.org) by February 10, 2012
- Self-nominations accepted
